Dear Sreemanji

I write this letter to personally thank you for sparing your precious time and conducting a one day seminar on Basic Communication Skills – Written, Verbal, Para-Verbal, Body Language, Tactile etc to our teaching and non-teaching staff on the 23 rd February. It was indeed a an enriching experience to our staff on a topic which has assumed great significance in today's open, globalized and interconnected world.

Each one of our team members has felt the presentation was simple, lucid and easily understood. Your elegantly articulated parables and illustrations from real world have made the session even more interesting to the participants. The wit with which you have engaged the participants, the team games and the visuals have added to the overall smart packaging of the presentation. I am not surprised though that our people want more from you and as such I request you to be kind enough to train our staff on similar topics like assertiveness, team work and leadership that are very relevant in today's rapidly changing and competitive world

On the whole it was an insightful and enlightening session for our staff members I therefore request you to kindly accept our deepest appreciation and gratefulness for giving us your time and intellect

Yours Sincerely

Suman C.Malladi
